

A TELOS Christmas Story

Twas the night before Christmas and all through the club
Not a member was stirring, not even me and my hub

The stockings were hung in the Coliseum with care
In hopes that more clients soon would be there

Now enough with this classic, let's put a spin on this poem
I've got a lot of lines to read so I'll keep the momentum going.

2009 – what an eventful year it was
So much happened, let's recap all the buzz

Patti's still building her house, maybe in 2010 the finality
Who are we kidding, it's never going to happen, on with reality.

A new set of interns were added to our team
Lots of cologne and solid colored shirts became Robert's dream

Ashley was here too and has stuck with us til now
She can do Tara's job like no one else knows how

The Toast and Taste happened on January 23rd
After seeing Nasty Russian girl, all of our visions are now blurred

The Power Pilates group came back to town
We know how to host a convention, we've got it down

This year's been rough as far as computers go
But we have moved on from the floppy disc era, someone let Brent and Wayne know.

Engagements and babies, this is the year of love
How many TELOS couples can we think of?

Jessica was first to get married in '09
A Hill Country wedding suited the Gores just fine.

Clarisa and Matt got engaged, what a rock she got
On Halloween, is when they tied the knot

Myles and Carolina married too but in November
Now, instead of 2 kids, she has 3 to remember.

Alex and Karen got engaged after Pearl Jam played

That moment in the mud, neither one would ever trade

Even if you don't get married, you can still have some fun.
Like William and the intern, now Glenn's not the only one

Earth to Glenn, no one's in Camp Jacob, no one even cares
And if you really want to look like him, you have to shave all those chest hairs.

Tara finally decided to tell us that she was havin a kid
She's so sneaky, for the first 5 months, she hid!

Rachael had that glow too, in her eye was a spark
She finally had that little boy, a mini man named Clark.

Also on the baby wagon, Clarisa and Matt are next!
They conceived across the border, having lots of Mexican sex!

Café nazi Bryan is serious, so whatever you do
Don't touch anything in the kitchen or it's "NO SOUP FOR YOU"

Celebs like Mark, Mike, and Mandy are coming around more and more
Pretty soon, oh wait, Ryan's head already can't fit through the door.

When Leroy goes fishing, he's in the zone
Don't even try to get him to answer his cell phone.

We lost some staff, some more came on deck
Like Jan, who's always in her pink turtleneck

Jason's new to the team, and it's kind of a bummer
That he has to use a ladder to get into his hummer.

Speaking of little men, Everett's got a few of his own
They're on display, right next to his throne.

Paige welcomed the newbies and I swear I heard her say
Hey, for being so nice, I better get a CIA!

On a more serious note, this year's been long and tough
But Team TELOS knows, we've got the right stuff

To get the job done and be successful next year
We're coming back in 2010, have no fear.

So we'll begin in January, take it nice and slow
And in the words of Matt and William, that's what she said "OHHHHHHH"
